

Spartan Scenes

Many interesting and exciting activities have been planned for this year at South High School by the Student Council many of which have already taken place.

The Council is led by Robbie Hole, president. Assisting Robbie in the planning of activities are: Joy Bebbling, vice president; Kathy Jordon, commissioner of records; Shtaron McComes, corresponding secretary; Pat Campisi, commissioner of publicity; Pam Lytle, commissioner of finance; Leonard Wood, commissioner of athletics; Kathy Copple, commissioner of activities; Maria Acosta, commissioner of pep; and Bob Lewis, club co-ordinator.

Others are Sandy French, Girls League president; Phil Shaw, Boys League president; Steve Otto, Senior Class president; Suzie Schenk, Junior Class president; and Dave Hawkins, Sophomore Class president.

THE NEW teachers at South were welcomed by a Tea, Sept. 8 and a Breakfast, Sept. 9 held in their honor by the Student Council.

The Freshmen were also welcomed to South on Freshman Orientation Day, Sept. 13, by the Student Council. The Freshmen were introduced to the members of the Council and to South, and were presented with a style show to show them what to wear to school and school activities.

THE FRESHMEN were welcomed again at the Howdy Hop on Sept. 16, which is held annually in their honor. 1300 Spartans attended this dance which was free, in the South High cafeteria.

The Big and Little Sister picnic, held annually by Girls League to get the Freshmen girls acquainted with South and some of its girls, was held Sept. 10, on the football field and patio. Girls League officers were introduced by Sandy French, president. Some of South's Board, Mr. Lucas, principal; Mr. Rotcher, activities advisor; Miss Rouse, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Benson were also introduced. The pep squad performed and the day was enjoyed by all in attendance.

THE BAY LEAGUE Sportsmanship Forum was held Sept. 26 at Redondo High. Three students off of Student Council were chosen to represent South at the Forum. They are Robbie Hole, Kathy Jordon, and Joy Bebbling.

One of the coming activities everyone is looking forward to is our first league game with Hawthorne which will be played Friday, Oct. 7 at 8 at El Camino.

The Student Council is looking forward to Junior Citizen Day, Oct. 11. On this day, each member of the Council at South and other high schools get to take over the job of one of the City Council members.

Hillside PTA Slates Polio Clinics Here

To fight the increasing polio rate throughout the county, Hillside PTA is joining with the National Polio Foundation in sponsoring a 'crash' polio inoculation program.

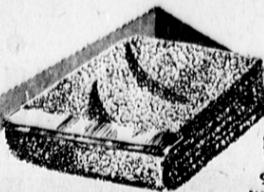

Persons who have not completed their polio immunization series are urged to take advantage of the $1 vaccine at the Hillside School, 25600 Crenshaw Blvd., Friday evening, between 7 and 9 p.m.

Mrs. Eric Borner, chairman, announced follow-up clinics will be held on Oct. 21 and again on Nov. 18.
